FLY TO THE EDGE OF SPACE

Worldwide Experiences

For generations, the MiG-29's ability to climb high was a closely guarded secret. In the 12 years we offered MiG-29 flights at Zhukovsky Air Base, not a hint was made of the jet's secret high-flying ability. Our most popular Edge of Space program is a five-day, four-night adventure that includes time in both Moscow and Nizhny Novgorod, where our flights take place. The price of your adventure includes a one-day use of all necessary safety equipment for your 21-22km high flight, including a special high altitude pressure suit. Prepare to take off for the Edge of Space, where the sky appears black above and blue below and you can begin to see the curvature of the earth. It is an amazing experience, and the highest flight available...today.
